

More than 6,000 journalists and news agencies from around the world have applied for temporary accreditation to the Holy See Press Office for the Conclave. These include a number of Canadian media, both religious and secular, which are currently in Rome to cover the events surrounding the papal election. Salt + Light Television is providing full coverage of this memorable week, including the Mass before the Conclave, the procession of the Cardinals into the Sistine Chapel, and the announcement of the election of the new Pope. Father Thomas Rosica, C.S.B., CEO of Salt + Light TV, has been in Rome for several weeks to assist the Director of the Holy See Press Office, Father Federico Lombardi, S.J. The coverage by Salt + Light TV will be posted on the CCCB website.

Link to Salt + Light Television