

The Pre-Synodal Meeting of young people took place at the Vatican, 19-24 March 2018, in preparation for the 15th General Ordinary Assembly of the Synod of Bishops on Young People, the Faith and Vocational Discernment

. Two Canadian young adults participated as the delegates of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops:

Ms. Emilie Callan and Mr. Jacob Jason Genaille-Dustyhorn

. The Pre-Synodal Meeting gathered over 300 young people from all around the world, most of whom were Catholic, but a number of whom, at the request of Pope Francis, included other Christians as well as non-believers who are searching. Here below are a number of links to various texts which the Holy See issued following the meeting:
